There was no old business.

New Business:

It was determined we need a social assistant for Linda Jenks to help set up and organize the two performance lunches we host each year. That volunteer will be determined at our next meeting in the fall.

Martha volunteered to produce a membership booklet with member information to increase the ease for member contacts.

As vice president, Martha ask for suggestions for programs next year. She intends to keep the member performance each month which we initiated this year.

Ideas to be considered were:

Studio Policy Ideas

Hand care and exercise by Marsha Waugh.

It was announced that Amber Berry was considering a summer activity addressing Studio Policies.

We all expressed a great desire to share a time with Mary Leah when we learn if her health can tolerate the gathering and musical exchange. We have to let circumstances dictate the time and place for such event.

A visitor to our last meeting expressed her delight at the compassionate love which was exhibited between our members at the meeting she attended. Such camaraderie is unusual, recognized, and appreciated.

It was announced that Performers Choice will be Feb. 28th and 29th ,2020 at C.M.U.

The following performed with a high level of expertise:
Lisa, Malinda, Bobbi, Max, Martha, and Linda.

The meeting was adjourned and many enjoyed a lunch out together.
